Restoring Energetic Harmony With Qigong

Energy is always in motion throughout the universe.

Likewise the flow of energy within the human body should remain unobstructed and in motion, allowing us to be healthy and filled with vitality. However, this is often not the case as energy becomes trapped in the body leading to stagnation and dis-ease. What causes these energetic blockages?

This workshop will examine the underlying cause of dis-ease, from a Medical Qigong perspective, and introduces a simple yet powerful method everyone can employ to restore wellbeing and vitality.

What you will learn:

- The underlying root of Addictions and Afflictions
- Obstructions in the free-flow of energy
- The 5 Yin organs and their emotional component
- How to discover energetic blockages in your body
- A powerful method to restore energetic harmony and wellbeing

Musetta Celentano received her Master of Medical Qigong from the International Institute of Medical Qigong and is certified in Chinese Medical Qigong Therapy and Chinese Clinical Oncology from the Healing Qi Institute in Los Angeles.

She incorporates years of practical experience with knowledge of both eastern & western spiritual energetic principles making Qigong easy to understand and accessible to all. For additional info please visit:
